- Modern, cosmopolitan, bustling
- Exciting nightlife
- Location for business trips
- Wide selection of leisure activities

✚ THE INSIDER'S GUIDE

- A shopper's paradise - unique blend of authentic and modern.
- The city is exceptionally sunny, hence its nickname "Casa la Blanche" (white house) because of its white sun-blached houses.
- The central market (especially in the morning): spice vendors, fishmongers, market gardeners...
- The Hassan II Mosque is only open to visitors on Fridays.

THE BEST REASONS TO VISIT CASABLANCA

Unforgettable places:

- The Hassan II Mosque, the third largest mosque in the world, built on a headland over the ocean.
- Modern city: broad avenues and squares lined with Art Deco buildings.
- The ancient medina, surrounded by its 16th century ramparts, is a must-see for its craftsmen and antique shops while strolling through its maze of alleyways.
- The souks in the Habous district, recommended for its arcades, shaded squares, artisan workshops, bakeries and antique shops.

Rest, relaxation, and shopping:

- Stroll along Corniche Boulevard. The “Moroccan Croisette” is bustling with attractions day and night: restaurants, cabarets, nightclubs...
- Unwind on the private beaches of Aïn Diab, on Corniche Boulevard.
- Thalassotherapy at the Lido resort (Riad Salam Hotel), Africa’s leading resort.
- Mint tea in Arab League Park, the city’s nicest park.
- Shopping in the boutiques of the ancient medina and the Maarif district.

Excursions and Activities:

- Mohammedia, seaside resort with a beautiful sandy beach and a range of attractions: casino, horse racing, yacht club.
- Boulaouane, explore the vineyards and taste the legendary “Vin Gris” (grey wine).
- Azemmour and El Jadida, fortified villages on the southern coast. A former 16th century Portuguese stronghold, El Jadida is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- Mazagan Resort: a holiday resort stretching 7 km along the coast.
- Golf at the Royal Golf Club of Mohammedia (very technical 9-hole course), in Ben Slimane (9 holes) or in the Royal Golf Club of El Jadida (18 holes).
